LAWS & ANNOUNCEMENTS

New Laws

Oct 28: The newly tabled and soon to be passed Saskatchewan Internal Trade Promotion Act, Bill 24, promotes interprovincial trade by providing for mutual recognition of goods and services entering the province from other Canadian provinces and territories. The Bill is patterned after legislation recently adopted around the country in response to U.S. and Chinese tariffs.

Health & Safety

Nov 30: That's the last day of public review on Parts 1 to 5 of the Saskatchewan OHS Regulations. Issues on the table: asbestos processes, incident reporting, incident investigation, OHS programs, youth employment, working alone, workplace violence and harassment, and first aid.

Health & Safety

Oct 14: Public health clinics in Saskatchewan began providing this season's free influenza and COVID vaccinations to residents ages 6 months and older. Free vaccines will also be offered at select pharmacies and physician or nurse practitioner offices. Residents can book appointments via the Saskatchewan Health Authority's online booking system, or by calling 1-833-727-5829, Monday to Friday.
